

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Anna Minos

Federation of Hellenic-American Societies of New England, Inc.
(FHASNE); Telephone/Fax: 617.507.6444

Date: Sunday, March 22, 2009 at 5:30 PM
at the Maliotis Cultural Center

The Federation of the Hellenic American Societies of New England in cooperation with the Pan Macedonian Association and the Maliotis Cultural Center will be presenting the Historian, Researcher and Film Director of the Hellenic influence to the world, Mr. Demetrios Manolesakis on Sunday, March 22, 2009 at 5:30 at the Maliotis Cultural Center, 50 Goddard Ave., Brookline, MA.

Mr. Manolesakis documentary "Hellas, Gate of Europe to the Mediterranean" will be featured. This documentary was filmed on site, in Italy, Corsica, Spain, Libya, Syria, and Asia Minor. In addition, a 15 minute film (report) will be presented, which covers Mr. Manolesakis new discoveries, of unknown Greek descendents of Alexander the Great, on the mountains of Pamir in Tajikistan (Iskantari Pamirsi = Alexandrians of Pamir), and a trailer of the new documentary of the Araukanas of Argentina and Chile that their traditions show that they are descendents of the Ancient Spartans!.

A brief discussion and question session will take place with the Director.

Reception immediately following

For more information: Tel: 617.507.6444 ♦ www.fhasne.com
The Federation of Hellenic-American Societies is a registered 501(c)(3) organization